Seniors Helping Seniors®

Seniors Helping Seniors is a unique elderly care service that matches people who need assistance and care, with seniors who want to help.

Our award winning service matches specially vetted seniors to help older people who need an extra pair of hands.

The same-person care agreement is easy going and flexible.

“The staff member chosen to visit my mother-in-law is motivated, always cheerful and brings out the best in her. We feel it has been very successful and are very pleased with this service.”

BARBARA

“I cannot fault SHS with its sense of reliable and friendly caring attention, providing a feeling of security in one’s later life. I give thanks for the day I was introduced to this organisation.”
